9 November 1959

MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director for Research and Reports
Assistant Director for Scientific Intelligence
Assistant Director for Current Intelligence

SUBJECT: CIA Air Photo Reconnaissance Requirements for Hope Chest

25X1A

1. On November 18, 1958 CIA, over the signature of [REDACTED] submitted to the Deputy Chief of Staff (Development) of the USAF a preliminary statement on the above subject along with a map (copy of which is attached).

2. It is now desired to review the targets established at that time in the light of the current needs of your office. This revision is needed on an urgent basis and all your material should be submitted by December 7.

3. Your specific assignment is as follows:

a. Strike those target complexes on the attached map which are no longer applicable and indicate these complexes or individual targets which should be added.

b. Prepare a list of specific targets within those complexes with the relevant information as called for in the attached sample format.

c. Arrange the targets in general categories of priority.
A, B and C.

Naturally, your office should keep in mind the limitations of photo reconnaissance when you indicate the nature of the information desired.

4. It is suggested that as a convenience for further possible use in subsequent revisions that you establish a card file or other efficient record-keeping system.

5. I have asked [REDACTED] to meet with you or your designee on Thursday at 10:00 a.m. in Room 315 Administration Building to answer any questions which your office may have.

"SIGNED"

Robert Amory, Jr.
